Artrageous scholarship opportunity for a 2018 graduating seniors at Spring Hill High School.

Artrageous will be awarding $250-$1,000 in scholarship funds to at least one or up to four deserving 2018 college-bound high school graduating seniors based on demonstrated academic achievement, financial need and an express interest in pursuing an education at an accredited qualifying institution in an area of the arts-art, dance, theater or music.

The students eligible for the awarded one-time scholarship must be graduating from Spring Hill High School. Consideration will be given to academic achievement, financial need and the student's participation in the arts during their high school career.

Students should submit a scholarship application on the form provided by Artrageous and a 200-250 word essay related to “How the arts have impacted my life”.

Each scholarship awarded will be a minimum of $250.

A selection committee will carefully review the scholarship applications submitted by the graduating senior and select the most deserving recipient(s).

Deadline is April 18, 2018

Completed application, essay and any additional items can be turned into the high school counselor or the Administration Office.
